

This Wednesday, 15 July: BCC sings at international choral festival, "Music Meets Europe"

Brussels Chamber Choir has one more concert before its summer break.

Join us at NOVUM (Théâtre Saint Michel) for the international choral festival "Music Meets Europe", where we'll sing alongside other choirs, and a youth orchestra, from across the world. The BCC will perform some of its favourite pieces, including "O vos omnes" by Pau Casals, "Bogoroditse Devo" by Arvo Pärt and "Nachtlied" by Max Reger.

Tickets are free but you need to register via the link.

Wednesday 15 July 2026, 19:30

Tickets are already available on our website: <https://www.brusselschamberchoir.be/agenda>

Coming up this autumn - BCC sings at Ars Musica festival

Take good note of our first concert of the 2026-2027 season. On Friday 20 November we will perform at the prestigious Ars Music festival for contemporary music. The theme of the festival is Arctic Fever. We will perform beautiful a Capella music from the Baltic countries, in alternation with live music for organ and electronics by Alice Hebborn and Cindy Castillo. We'll let you know when the ticket sales go live!

Past Projects: Allegri's "Miserere" and Bach's "Jesu meine Freude"

We were delighted to welcome so many of you at our concerts in June. It was a huge pleasure to perform Allegri's sublime "Miserere" in its entirety, as well as Bach's beautiful "Jesu meine Freude" in two beautiful churches. We hope several excerpts from this concert will make it on to YouTube so that we can share them with you. In the meantime, you can already enjoy our encore:
