

Brussels Royal Conservatoire conducting exams - 26 June 2024

The BCC is proud to be supporting new conducting talent in Brussels. We will be participating in the final choral conducting exams for the Royal Conservatoire of Brussels. The two candidates, Céline Rimet from France and Yeram Choi from South Korea, have put together two contrasting programmes, including music by Casals, Rheinberger, Hyun Kook, Laschet, Hindemith, Monteverdi and Reger. They have been rehearsing with the BCC since April, under the supervision of their teacher Helen Cassano.

The closing performance of the exams is open to the public for free, so you are warmly invited to join us on Wednesday 26 June. No need to book but you can RSVP here so we know to expect you.

The first part of the performance will be with the Choeur de Chambre du Conservatoire, with whom Céline and Yeram have also prepared a programme, under the supervision of Charles Michiels, Professor of conducting at the Conservatoire.

Future events - International Choral Festival & Competition of Flanders

The BCC is participating in the 17th edition of the International Choral Festival & Competition of Flanders, which takes place in Genk on 4-6 October 2024. We will be presenting challenging works by Reger, Howells, Rautavaara, Pärt and Roland Coryn, as well as the compulsory work by Kurt Bikkembergs. You would be most welcome to come and support us during our try-out performance in Brussels or, if you're in the neighbourhood, please do join us in lovely Genk!

Past events - BCC sings Arvo Pärt

Our concert honouring the music of Arvo Pärt and featuring Orthodox choral works on 23 March was a great success. More than 300 Pärt enthusiasts filled the church - and we thank each of you for your support! Among the highlights were Pärt's magical Beatitudes for choir and organ and Rachmaninoff's Tebe Poyem, which you can listen to by clicking on the links.
